MEMORANDUM FOR GENERAL CUTLER
THE WHITE HOUSE

1. I have received your memorandum of 15 March 1954 which notes the approval of the new NSC 10/ Directive.

2. Since I just recently briefed the Council on CIA activities under the 10 Series Directive, I do not believe you will find it necessary for another briefing in the immediate future. However, I stand ready to make an oral report to the statutory members of the NSC, and others the President may wish to include, whenever you deem it appropriate.
